

Elevating Lives
one peak at a time

On May 21, 2016, at approximately 3 o'clock in the morning, local realtor and philanthropist Trevor Stuart reached the pinnacle - literally and figuratively - of his "Elevating Lives - One Peak at a Time" campaign by reaching the summit of Mt. Everest! An elevation of 29,028 feet but a journey of thousands of steps, thousands of breaths and millions of thoughts.

Sixteen hours later, he was back at Advanced Base Camp (approx. 21,300') and everyone breathed a sigh of relief, as the descent is sometimes more perilous than the ascent.

Since February of 2015, Trevor has climbed seven peaks around the world in an effort to raise awareness and funds to end family violence, something he has personal experience with.

"I was raised in a home where domestic violence was rampant. When I was little, I was so scared, confused and wished someone would help. I didn't know a Harbour House existed anywhere. I want to help women and children experience freedom by learning that there is a place to go for them. It's safe here at the YWCA Lethbridge and District. Lives can be rebuilt and self confidence grow!"

LEFT: Jessica Joss of YWCA's Board of Directors takes a swing at the 11th hole at the Turning Point Golf Classic (July 2015). The event raised just over $31,000.

At this particular hole, golfers must slip into a pair of women's high heels to take their shot. It's all in an effort to promote another YWCA event, Walk A Mile, which takes place every September.

BELOW: YWCA staff & volunteers gather for a 'family portrait' after another successful Walk A Mile in Her Shoes event (September 2015) in Galt Gardens. Men sign up to raise money and then walk a mile in high-heel shoes.

A Message from the President & the CEO

As YWCA Lethbridge and District enters its 68th year serving women, children, youth and men in our community, we celebrate the changes that have occurred, not only globally, nationally and locally, but as a community servicing organization.

Reflecting on the last year at YWCA Lethbridge and District, we have seen many changes. This year we said farewell to a strong leader in our community, Kristine Cassie, who had been with the YWCA for more than 26 years and held the position of CEO for 10. Kristine was and is a strong advocate for the movement and will be sincerely missed.

The economic climate has had significant impact on YWCA locally with the increased need of supports and services, however, we will continue to offer the support and services needed in our community and will overcome any barriers we may face.

This year we were fortunate to have Trevor Stuart, a local real estate agent and philanthropist, become a champion for the YWCA. Trevor took on the feat of climbing some of the tallest mountains in the world with the grand finale of summiting Mt. Everest in order to raise funds and awareness of family violence. Trevor has been a very positive male role for many of our clients as well as for the community.

We continue to take bold strides in advocacy for women and children, we empower our community and the individuals we serve in leadership and provide safe and necessary programming. Our programs have expanded to accommodate increased numbers, we have developed new programming for gaps that were identified, such as Amethyst and Trauma Care, and we continue to build capacity within our agency and the community in service delivery, expertise and reputation.

YWCA Lethbridge and District continues to provide opportunities for women to be leaders in shaping social and cultural directions in order to achieve equity and equality for all women. We have wonderful, dedicated volunteers, a strong Young Women's Leadership Council (YWLC), and remarkable programming for girls.

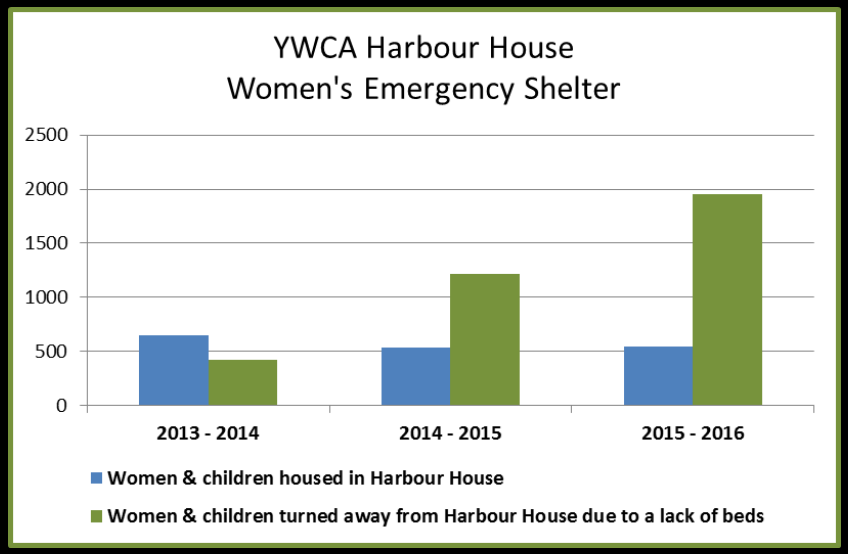

Our organization embraces differences and diversity, and continues to work on strengthening our competence with the FNMI community, LGBTQ+, immigrants and vulnerable populations. We continue to promote and advocate for healthy communities that are free from violence. YWCA Lethbridge and District is committed to being a strong voice for women and girls with a focus on strength, wisdom and character that come from the balanced development of the whole person in mind, body and spirit.

YWCA Lethbridge and District supports people from our community when they need it most, regardless of their circumstances, and with support from our partners and community, we will continue to deliver exceptional programs and services to our community and beyond.
